Summary

In this sermon, Pastor Tim discusses the story of Lazarus from the Gospel of John, emphasizing the themes of love, death, tears, and life. He highlights that despite being loved by Jesus, Lazarus still experienced death, demonstrating that being loved by God does not shield us from pain, loss, or suffering. Pastor Tim also emphasizes that Jesus wept, showing his deep emotional connection to humanity. He concludes by encouraging the congregation to believe in Jesus as the resurrection and the life, and to remember that death does not have the final word because Jesus has conquered it.

Pastor Tim 00:00

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present, nor things that come nor powers, nor heights, nor depths, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen. Romans 8:38-39, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge that you may be filled with the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than we ask or think according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Ephesians chapter three, verses 19 through 21, there is nothing on this earth powerful enough to separate the children of God from the love of God. Amen. Those who are in Christ can find rest knowing that no man, no method, no machine can outperform or even match a holy God who possesses a holy love for those he has saved, redeemed, called elect and adopted.
